

Sidney Engelbrecht is appointed to the position of Manager: Research Ethics & Compliance in the Faculty of Health Sciences and Office of Research Integrity, University of Cape Town (UCT).

Sidney has been working in research support and development (with a focus on research ethics and integrity) in higher education for more than a decade. He has experience in managing Research Ethics Committees (Human and Animal), and Biosafety Committees.

He is a co-opt member of the UCT Senate Animal Ethics Committee and (Senate) Institutional Biosafety Committee. In addition, he is a member of the Executive Committee of the South African Association for Laboratory Animal Sciences.

Sidney serves on the Research Management Committee of the Southern African Research Innovation and Management Association (SARIMA). He offers research ethics training on behalf of SARIMA and participate in strategic projects across SADC. As a SARIMA committee member, he also serves on the Working Group: Research Impact & Stakeholder Engagement under the auspices of the International Network of Research Management Societies (INORMS).

He studied Law and completed postgraduate courses/qualifications in law, ethics and integrity, and compliance. He is a Research Management Professional, accredited by the International Professional Recognition Council.