5 Description of the subjects on which this institution holds records and categories of records held on each subject

The NWU Records Management Policy as well as the NWU File plan and disposal schedule (available on request from the Records Manager) provide an indication of the records the NWU keep and the manner in which they are managed.

Please note that not all records listed in the NWU File plan and disposal schedule will necessarily be made available on demand, seeing that certain records are fully or partially confidential and your request for access thereto is subject to the right you are protecting or exercising, as well as the internal disposal procedures followed by the NWU.

Please also note that the NWU complies with the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, and will under no circumstances divulge the personal information of individuals we have dealings with and who have entrusted us with their personal information for the purposes as specified by themselves or which can reasonably be inferred from the context in which they have provided the information.

Please note that all records that have exceeded their retention period and which has a D instruction in the file plan, are destroyed and recorded in the NWU destruction register. Your right of access to the information is legitimately limited/restricted by the NWU File plan and disposal schedule.

Please contact the senior records officer of the University Eric.Swanepoel@nwu.ac.za or (018) 285 2553 if you require more information.

6 Categories of records available without a person having to request access thereto [Section 15]
