5 Description of the subjects on which this institution holds records and categories of records held on each subject

The NWU records management policy (available at http://www.nwu.ac.za/webfm_send/24655) as well as the NWU file plan and disposal schedule (available on request from the Records Manager) provide an indication of the records the NWU keep and the manner in which they are managed.

Please note that not all records listed in the NWU file plan and disposal schedule will necessarily be made available on demand, seeing that certain records are fully or partially confidential and your request for access thereto is subject to the right you are protecting or exercising, as well as the internal disposal procedures followed by the NWU.

Please note that all records that have exceeded their retention period and which has a D instruction in the file plan, are destroyed and recorded in the NWU's destruction register. Your right of access to the information is legitimately limited/restricted by the NWU file plan and disposal schedule.

Please contact the records manager of the university 10935746@nwu.ac.za or (018) 299 4942 if you require more information.
