POLICY ON DELEGATION, ASSIGNMENT AND AGENCY

Against the background of the dream to be an internationally recognised university in Africa, distinguished for engaged scholarship, social responsiveness and an ethic of care, the council of the North-West University (NWU) has adopted this policy on 21 November 2019 to regulate the delegation and assignment of powers and functions and agency entrusted to governance and management structures and office bearers of the university.

1 Interpretation and application
1.1 This policy must be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with the –
   1.1.1 Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996;
   1.1.2 Higher Education Act, 101 of 1997 (“HE Act”);
   1.1.3 The Statute of the North-West University (2017) (“the Statute”), and
   1.1.4 All related policies of the NWU, particularly policies concerning the financial, contractual, procurement and human resources functions and operations of the NWU that, in turn, would need include pertinent references to this policy.
1.2 For ease of reference statutory provisions relevant to this policy are reflected in the Appendix to this policy, which the registrar must keep current.

2 Definitions
In this policy –
   “accounting officer” means a functionary or employee of the university who bears responsibility in terms of the applicable terms of employment to ensure that a component of the university has and maintains effective, efficient and transparent systems of financial and risk management and internal control, taking into account that the vice-chancellor is in terms of section 30 of the HE Act and paragraph 42(1) of the Statute the chief executive and accounting officer of the NWU responsible for the management and administration of the university;
   “agency” means the capacity of any person or entity lawfully empowered by a governance or other structure or office bearer of the university to represent the NWU in the performance of legally binding acts, “agent” having a corresponding meaning;
   “assignment” means the transmission to a committee, functionary or employee of the NWU of the authority to perform an act under specific conditions or within a specific framework whereby the NWU is deemed to incur or fulfil an obligation;
   “delegation” means the revocable transfer of a power or function of the NWU by the bearer of such power or function (“the delegans”) upon another structure, body or person (“the delegatus”) to be exercised by the delegatus on behalf of the delegans;
   “line manager” refers to an employee of the NWU who is responsible for the management of other employees and who is accountable in terms of the relevant terms of employment for the administrative management and output of a component of the university.

1 This policy is a new policy and not a review of the current Policy on Delegations and Schedule of Authorisation Levels (4P/4). The Schedule of Authorisation approved by Council on 22 June 2017 is to be viewed as a schedule in terms of para 5.6 of the NWU Financial Policy (4P/4)
3 Policy statement
It is the policy of the NWU –

3.1 to grant standing delegation, assignment and agency to functionaries, line managers and employees of the university in accordance with the nature of the positions in which they are employed as reflected in their terms of employment or in another written form freely accessible to all concerned;

3.2 that every additional or incidental delegation and sub-delegation made by a structure, body or line manager must be reduced to writing and formally recorded in a manner accessible to all concerned.

4 Purposes of delegation, assignment and agency
Delegation, assignment and agency must serve the purpose of –

4.1 ensuring best practices in the governance, management and administration of the university;

4.2 providing clarity of roles and responsibilities to ensure that the performance by functionaries, line-managers and employees and the functioning of the structures of the university are effective, efficient and transparent;

4.3 ensuring that a clear and transparent framework for effective and informed decision-making by structures, functionaries, managers and employees of the university is established, and

4.4 ensuring consistent accountability for and reporting on the performance of functions and responsibilities throughout the university.

5 Responsibilities and accountability

5.1 The assignment of the authority and agency to perform acts on behalf of the NWU involving finance and the signing of contracts relating to academic research and innovation is regulated by the Financial Policy of the NWU.

5.2 An accounting officer is responsible to the line manager concerned for the performance of financial competences within the framework of the assignments and delegations pertaining to the component of the university for which such officer is responsible.

5.3 A delegatus, assignee and agent is required to perform the functions associated with the relevant position with due diligence and responsibility as determined by the terms of employment or applicable written delegation, assignment or agency.

5.4 A delegans may delegate a function or authority only to a person qualified and empowered to perform the function or exercise the authority concerned, and who is actively involved in the component of the university concerned, and who has the appropriate knowledge and technical skills, including knowledge of the applicable policies and rules.
Statutory Provisions Relevant to Delegation, Assignment and Agency
