SA-eDUC - Information for contributors

Editorial policy

SA-eDUC invites authors to submit articles of the following kinds in the field of education:

1. Original research articles in any field of education.
Such articles will be subjected to anonymous peer review by several national or international referees. Scholarly suitability and the contribution a manuscript makes to the development of research in education will serve as the primary criteria for acceptance. Articles that have been reviewed and are submitted for final review must reflect changes suggested by the reviewer(s). The author should clearly state in an accompanying letter how and where in the article suggestions have been incorporated. Articles should preferably not exceed 5 000 words in length. This requirement will only be waived in highly exceptional cases. All articles must contain an abstract in English of a maximum of 200 words and at least five key words. Once published, copyright of articles is ceded to the journal.

References

-in the text should be done as follows:
In brackets the name of the author, date of publication and page number(s), thus:
(Likando, 2011: 122).
In cases of more than two authors the name of the first author followed by et al. should be used.
In cases of more than one source published by the same author in the same year have been cited, the letters a, b, c, etc. should be added after the year of publication, e.g. Likando (2011a).

-list of references at the end of the article
Only sources cited in text are listed, in alphabetical order

Journal articles: Name(s) and initials of authors, year of publication, title of article, in italics the unabridged title of the journal, volume, in brackets the issue number, and after a colon the page numbers, for example:
• Books: Name(s) of author(s), year of publication, in italics title of book, place of publication, publisher, e.g.:

• Book chapters: Name(s) and initials of author, date of publication, title of chapter, : Name(s) of editor(s), year of publication, in italics title of book, place of publication, publisher, colon, page numbers, e.g.:

• Electronic references: Author, date, title, in brackets webpage and date of access, for example:

Articles must be language edited by an acknowledged language practitioner and proof of this must be provided. An author must submit an undertaking that the manuscript is not being published elsewhere. No material published elsewhere, or under consideration elsewhere, will be accepted.

2. Book reviews.
Publishers and authors are invited to submit books, recently launched in the field of education, for review. Reviewers will be tasked by the editorial committee. Readers are also invited to submit reviews of recent books in the field of education. These reviews will be considered by the editor and the editorial committee. The maximum length of book reviews should be 1 000 words.

Submission of articles
Submissions and proposals are to be submitted electronically to the Editor: SA-eDUC at: saeduc@nwu.ac.za
Submissions should include details of the author(s), including their institutional affiliations, and e-mail addresses.