

The K4C hub cordially invites you to attend a webinar on:
HOW CAN WE MAKE HIGHER EDUCATION MORE RESPONSIVE TO THE SDGs?

K4C =

Knowledge for Change and relates to the generation of knowledge by the university in partnership with communities to address the SDGs in different countries around the world.

03 June 2021 (16:30 - 18:00)

Join us for an interactive conversation with leaders in the field

Prof Mary Brydon-Miller,

College of Education and Human Development, University of Louisville

Prof Catherine Odora-Hoppers,

Global Institute of Applied Governance in Science Knowledge Systems and Innovations, Gulu University, Uganda.

Ms Diana Hornby,

Community Engagement, Rhodes
University

Prof Petra Bester,

African Unit for Transdisciplinary Health Research,
North-West University

Dr Bruce Damons,

Hubs of Convergence, Nelson
Mandela University

Prof Francis Petersen,

Vice Chancellor, University of the Free State

Dr Rajesh Tandon (discussant),

Unesco Chair for CBR and Social Responsibility in Higher Education

Register HERE

Link: <https://meet.google.com/fmh-hgeh-xjn>