

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

POSTGRADUATE DISSERTATION AND THESIS SHOWCASE EVENT! 6 September 2024 @ 12:00-13:15

You are invited to attend the showcase event in which four of the school's postgraduates will competitively participate

Ms Basetsana Pertunia Setshogoe

Mr Teboho Moholi

Ms Kedibone Moreblessing Sethole

Basetsana P Setshogoe

Is registered for an MA-degree in Population Studies. Her research interest is in sexual and reproductive health and sustainable development.

Title of presentation:

Determinants of intimate partner violence among ever-married women in selected sub-Saharan African countries.

Teboho Moholi

Is a PhD candidate in Social Science with Development Studies as disciplinary field. He has keen research interest in development studies with specific focus on community development and practice, and community-based planning.

Title of presentation:

Exploring the role of the community in the decision-making process in selected development initiatives in Dihlabeng Local Municipality, South Africa.

Join Zoom Meeting

<https://zoom.us/j/92581194408?pwd=cA3YaXUKHJxaxiNEGxvJC aZ1wtyPKL.1>

Passcode: 438238

Kedibone M Sethole

Is registered for the PhD degree in Sociology. She has a research interest in fatherhood studies, cultural perceptions thereof and its intersections with several disciplines.

Title of presentation: Exploring the intervention needs amongst young fathers in Mafikeng: A pre- and postnatal analysis.

Adjudicators:

Prof Werner Nell
Ms Kile Nkani

Technical support:

Ms Doret Kruger