RULES FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF OFFICE BEARERS

Preamble

Against the background of the dream to be an internationally recognised university in Africa, distinguished for engaged scholarship, social responsiveness and an ethic of care, the Council of the North-West University has, in accordance with the provisions of the Statute of the North-West University, adopted these Rules for the Appointment of Office Bearers on 24 April 2017.

1 Interpretation and application

These rules must be interpreted and applied in a manner consistent with the

- 1.1 Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996;
- 1.2 Higher Education Act, No 101 of 1997;
- 1.3 Statute of the North-West University (2017) (“the Statute”);
- 1.4 Labour Relations Act, No 66 of 1995;
- 1.5 Employment Equity Act, No 55 of 1998; and
- 1.6 Basic Conditions of Employment Act, No 75 of 1997.

2 Policy statement

It is the policy of the North-West University (NWU) to follow an optimal process for the recruitment, selection and appointment of the following office bearers in accordance with the provisions of the Statute, in particular paragraphs 7(1)(c), 7(7) and 42 to 62 thereof:

- 2.1 Vice-Chancellor (para 42);
- 2.2 Vice-Principal (para 49);
- 2.3 Deputy Vice-Chancellors (para 51);
- 2.4 Registrar (para 53);
- 2.5 Executive Directors (para 55);
- 2.6 The Internal Auditor (referred to in para 7(5) (a) (ii));
- 2.7 Executive Deans (para 57);
- 2.8 Deputy Deans (para 59); and
- 2.9 Academic Directors (para 61).

3 Rules

3.1 Procedure for the appointment of office bearers appointed by Council

- 3.1.1 At least three months prior to the date of a vacancy in respect of any of the offices referred to in 2.1 to 2.6 above, or as soon as possible after such an office has become vacant prior to the expiry of the term, the Registrar notifies all members of Council, Senate and the Institutional Forum of such vacancy.
- 3.1.2 Any person who is a candidate for appointment is required to recuse him-/herself from all preparatory and decision-making proceedings.

- 3.1.3 As soon as possible after receipt of the Registrar's notification of a vacancy, the Council establishes a selection panel constituted in accordance with 3.2 below.
- 3.1.4 On the advice of the Executive Director People and Culture and in the case of the Vice-Chancellor on the advice of the University Management Committee, the selection panel reviews and approves the formulation of the minimum requirements for the position, the position profile, any additional selection criteria proposed by the selection panel, and the advertisement for the vacancy.
- 3.1.5 The Executive Director People and Culture causes an advertisement for the filling of the vacancy to be published in accordance with the formulation in 3.1.4.
- 3.1.6 After receipt of all applications in response to the advertisement, a preliminary evaluation of the applications is done by the Executive Director: People and Culture and the managerial head concerned, having regard to the minimum requirements of the post. The Registrar reports the results to the selection panel.
- 3.1.7 The selection panel convenes to do a preliminary evaluation of all applications received in response to the advertisement, and to compile a shortlist from among those applicants considered to comply with the minimum requirements, profile and other selection criteria set by Council in accordance with 3.1.4 above to be interviewed.
- 3.1.8 The Registrar timeously forwards the formulation referred to in 3.1.4, and the applications and curricula vitae of the candidates on the shortlist to the consulting structures referred to in 4 below with the request that they express an opinion by a vote taken by secret ballot on the suitability for appointment of the shortlisted candidates.
- 3.1.9 The Registrar reports the outcome of the consultations of the consulting structures to the selection panel.
- 3.1.10 In the event that one or more of the consulting structures are of the opinion that no suitable application was received, the panel advises Council on whether or not the position should be re-advertised.
- 3.1.11 Psychometric evaluations of shortlisted candidates will be conducted in accordance with the NWU Recruitment and Selection Policy in the People and Culture portfolio, always subject to the provisions of the Employment Equity Act, No 55 of 1998.
- 3.1.12 Prior to the interview of any candidate, the selection panel must first determine a set of specific questions proposed by the manager to whom the appointee will report (or in the case of the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, the Chairperson of Council), as advised by the Executive Director: People and Culture, on which the interviews of all the applicants to be interviewed will focus.
- 3.1.13 Interviews with shortlisted candidates are conducted by the selection panel on a date arranged by the Registrar in consultation with the members of the selection panel.
- 3.1.14 The selection panel recommends the appointment of a suitable candidate to the Council, or, in the event of the panel finding that none of the applicants is suitable for appointment to the advertised position, that the position be re-advertised.
- 3.1.15 Council, after consultation with the recommended candidate, determines the time and manner of public dissemination of the outcome, and, on the advice of the Executive Committee of Council, determines the term of office and conditions of employment for purposes of the contract of employment, which process is administered by the Registrar.
- 3.1.16 In the event of a vacancy occurring in the position of Vice-Principal, the following procedure is followed:
 - 3.1.16.1 the Vice-Chancellor submits a nomination of a Deputy Vice-Chancellor for appointment by Council as Vice-Principal in writing to the Registrar, motivating the nomination in terms of the managerial, administrative and supervisory skills required for the position;
 - 3.1.16.2 the Registrar forwards the nomination to the Chairperson of Council, who presents it to the Council Exco for consideration;
 - 3.1.16.3 if Council Exco approves the nomination, the Registrar timeously forwards the name of the nominee to the relevant consulting structures referred to in 4 below requesting them to express an opinion by a vote taken by secret ballot on the suitability for appointment of the nominee as Vice-Principal;
 - 3.1.16.4 on completion of the consultation process, Council Exco submits its recommendation to Council;
 - 3.1.16.5 when Council determines to appoint a Deputy Vice-Chancellor as Vice-Principal, the procedure contemplated in 3.1.15 ("selection panel" in 3.1.15 read to mean "Council Exco") is followed.
